ABOUT THE SITE

TeenJobsNJ.com connects local, motivated and savvy teens with jobs in their communities. The site was started by Chatham resident Carole Bhalla, after she tried to find a local resource to help her teen find a job. Realizing that there was nothing out there, she launched the site. After 1.5 years the site has over 1,200 teens registered and has made over 170 matches. It is the go to site for local teens and their parents.
